Through Tourism Peace Project

We are a dynamic travel centre, specialising in tourism and travel to Israel and have been servicing travelers of all denominations seeking to experience the wonders of one of the greatest cultural bastions of the world - the Holy Land, for over 25 years. We have been successfully handling travel arrangements for groups and individuals, together with a strong relationship with El Al Israel Airlines and a professional network of tour operators and hotels in Israel.

Whether this is your first time to Israel or you have been before, we have the knowledge and expertise to plan an itinerary to suit your dreams and needs, and ensure your journey is memorable.

MISSION STATEMENT

To provide the optimum Holy Land travel experience to the Australasian market, that will have a lasting impact on each individual as an unforgettable and inspiring journey.

INTRODUCTION TO ISRAEL:

Welcome to the Holy Land. One of the most remarkable and fascinating places in the world, where past meets present.

For millions of travellers around the world, we are in the home of the three great monotheistic religions: Christianity, Judaism and Islam.

Israel is a place for everyone. Pilgrims, archaeologists, eco-tourists, adventure seekers, health, spa and beach lovers. All find their own reasons to visit. In this tiny part of the world, you will find sea, desert, ancient towns and breathtaking natural beauty. And always something that touches your soul.

Traveling through Israel's convoluted history is both exhilarating and exhausting. There are crumbling temples, ruined cities, abandoned forts and hundreds of places associated with the Bible. A short itinerary will leave you breathless. And while a sense of adventure is required, most sites are safe and easily accessible.

DEPARTS DAILY. GUARANTEED DEPARTURE FOR ONE PAX.

DAY 1 - Arrival

Airport meeting assistance and transfer to Jerusalem hotel.

DAY 2 - Jerusalem: Old & New

Explore the biblical and cultural highlights of Old and New Jerusalem. Start the tour with a panoramic view of the city from Mount of Olives. Explore the restored Jewish Quarter and visit the Cardo, an ancient Roman marketplace where you can still shop today. Stop at the Western Wall. Continue into the Christian Quarter and walk along the Via Dolorosa, following the Stations of the Cross to the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. Continue in the afternoon for a moving visit to Yad Vashem Holocaust Memorial. (On Saturdays visit Garden of Gethsemane and/or Mt. Zion to see the Room of the Last Supper and the Tomb of King David in place of Yad Vashem)

Please note – Mount of Olives may be replaced by Mount Scopus

DAY 3 - Masada & The Dead Sea

Depart Jerusalem and descend to the lowest place on earth. Drive along the shores of the Dead Sea to the rock fortress of Masada. Visit Herod's palaces, dating back 2000 years. Then hear about the zealots who defied the Roman Empire from this location. Enjoy a chance to swim in the Dead Sea. The water is so rich in salts and minerals that you float!

DAY 4 - Nazareth & The Sea of Galilee

Early morning departure north to Nazareth, to see the town of Joseph and Mary. Visit the Church of the Annunciation. Continue to the Sea of Galilee via Cana to visit the ruins at Capernaum. Stop at Tabgha, where the Miracle of the Fishes and Loaves took place. Return via the Baptismal site at Yardenit.
