
Sapio Research & Development Ltd.

About Us

Sapio, founded in 1997, brings two naturally co-existing business processes together: Marketing and Product Design, in order to develop innovative products and successfully introduce them to the market.

Since 2005 Sapio focuses on the design and manufacturing of innovative consumer products which provide quality solutions to everyday un-met needs or offer exceptional usage experience.

Company Vision

We believe that effective innovation, one with high chances of success, has to incorporate Sapio's main fields of expertise; Market Research, Strategic Planning and Product Design.

Sapio shall offer an overall solution incorporating deep understanding of the market and the consumers, comprehensive knowledge of industrial production process and excellent creative abilities.

These core capabilities will assist Sapio's customers in achieving a competitive edge in today's rapidly changing marketplace

Sapio – Consumer Goods

Sapio offers several lines of unique and innovative patent pending products.

Our products usually originate from consumer and market research that identify un-met needs or market opportunities.

Combining the research insights with our designers' creative expertise, enable us to offer breakthrough solutions.

To insure customers' satisfaction and enjoyment, all of our products go through meticulous quality control and comply with all standards and safety regulations.
